HOFFMANNS' CATHOLIC DIRECTORY.

VOLUME XIII.

The thirteenth volume of Hoffmanns' Catholic Directory is herewith placed before our respected patrons in a carefully revised and complete form. All reports to December 10th, 1897, are included and we can state that the statistics are accurate in every respect.

For the assistance rendered, by which we were enabled to issue this publication on time, we give thanks to the Most Rev. Archbishops, the Right Reverend Bishops, the Reverend Chancellors and the Reverend Secretaries for so promptly acceding to our wishes in furnishing the necessary reports. In this our expectations have been realized and the results are apparent, viz: that the directory is out on time.

We take leave to mention, that the statistics, as they appear in this issue, are compiled from the official reports, which were received from the different dioceses. In no case will the publishers venture to change an item from its originality as we thereby desire to uphold the title of "The Official Catholic Directory." In addition, we desire to mention, that, where changes in location of Reverend Pastors occur, the same are only noted if said changes are mentioned in the DIOCESAN REPORTS. WE ARE OBLIGED TO INSIST ON THIS RULE—and under no condition will a name be entered at a given place, unless the information comes to us through the official source; therefore, if any discrepancies are noted, it will be a service rendered, to make mention to the Reverend Secretary of the Diocese and in this way the change will be officially reported to us and a correction will be the result.

Yours Very Respectfully,

M. H. WILTZIUS & CO., Milwaukee, Wis.

Publishers of Hoffmanns' Catholic Directory.

ROCK HILL COLLEGE,

ELLICOTT CITY, MARYLAND.

Directed by the Brothers of the Christian Schools.

This Institution is situated upon the slope of one of the picturesque hills overlooking Ellicott City, within a few minutes walk of the railroad station. It is of easy access from Baltimore and Washington. The location is considered one of the healthiest in Maryland. The surrounding country, in whatever direction it is viewed, presents scenery attractive for its boldness and variety.

Land to the extent of about fifty acres is attached to the college. Water from springs on the neighboring hills courses by its own force and pressure throughout the buildings and premises, furnishing a copious supply for all purposes of health and cleanliness.

The College is conducted by the brothers of the Christian Schools, a body of men devoted exclusively to the cause of Christian education. Their methods of teaching have been successful in all parts of the civilized world and in every grade of school. These methods have been handed down to them by their blessed founder John Baptist de la Salle, with whatever improvements the experience of two centuries has been able to suggest. The brothers have, in consequence, reduced teaching to a science. Christian educators it is their great aim, not merely to instruct the intellect, but chiefly to cultivate their heart and mould the Christian gentleman.

The students are given every opportunity for developing healthful physiques. The play-grounds are large and shaded. There is no lack of outdoor exercise. Athletic sports are encouraged. A large bathing and skating pond, well-equipped gymnasiums, and other means of exercise and amusement are at the disposal of the students, and they avail themselves there of according to times and seasons. The health of the students is looked after with parental solicitude.

The institution possesses an excellent philosophical and chemical apparatus, a museum and a select library for the use of students.

COLLEGE RULES.

The school year begins on the first Monday in September, and ends on or about the second last Monday in June. It is divided into two terms of five months each, dating respectively from the first of September and the first of February.

Students are received at any time during the year, but never for a shorter period than one term of five months. They are examined on entering, and classified according to their proficiency. The curriculum runs through a Preparatory, Commercial and Collegiate, Literary and Scientific course. For particulars address,

BROTHER MAURICE, President.

MOST REV. FRANCIS JANSSENS, D.D.,
Late Archbishop of New Orleans.

Most Rev. Francis Janssens, D.D., was born at Tilburg, Holland, October 17, 1843. In the Seminary of his native diocese of Bois-le-Duc he made his preparatory and theological studies. Desirous of devoting himself to the missions of this country he entered in fall of 1866 the American College, connected with the renowned University of Louvain. On December 23, 1867, he was ordained to the priesthood and in the following September he sailed for the U. S., where upon arrival he was warmly welcomed by Bishop McGill of Richmond, Va. He was stationed at the Cathedral and shortly after became secretary to the Bishop and rector of the Cathedral. By Bishop (now Cardinal) Gibbons, who had succeeded Bishop McGill, he was created Vicar-General, and when Bishop Gibbons was promoted to the See of Baltimore, Father Janssens was administrator of the diocese, until the nomination of Bishop Keane. When in 1880 the diocese of Natchez became vacant, he was nominated by Rome to that See, and consecrated Bishop of Natchez May 1, 1881. At Natchez he remained seven years. Here he showed his splendid executive ability in the management of his diocese, while his genial manners and kindly disposition endeared him to the people of Mississippi. After the death of Most Rev. F. X. Leray, Archbishop of New Orleans, Bishop Janssens was nominated by Rome as his successor August 7, 1888. The record he made while Bishop of Natchez, he kept up as Archbishop of New Orleans. Convinced that education is the battle ground between christianity and infidelity, he always remained a firm and consistent friend and promotor of this subject. It was also his object to remove the prejudice and false pretensions, prevalent in the South, that there is in the Church racial distinction, which he has succeeded in doing. His health being impaired for some time, he undertook a trip to Europe, hoping to regain it. He sailed from New Orleans June 9, but was destined never to see his native land or his archdiocese again. He died June 10, on the steamer Creole, on its way from New Orleans to New York.

VERY REV. AUGUSTINE FRANCIS HEWIT,
Late Superior-General of the Paulists.

The Rev. Augustine Francis Hewit, D.D., second Superior-General of the Paulists, died on the 3rd of July 1897 at the age of 76 years. He was born in Fairfield, Conn., of Rev. Nathaniel Hewitt, D.D., a Congregational minister of the old school, and Rebecca Hillhouse, daughter of Hon. James Hillhouse, U. S. Senator of Connecticut. He was of American parentage dating back several generations. He made his early studies in the Phillips Academy at Andover, Mass., and at fifteen was entered at Amherst College, from which he was graduated in 1839. In his religious life he early experienced a revulsion of sentiment against the doctrines of Calvinism, joined the Episcopalean Church in 1840, was swept along with the Tractarian movement, and in 1846 made his submission to the Catholic Church while in the south for the purpose of warding off a pulmonary trouble that threatened his life. A year later, on March 25, 1847, he was ordained priest. Seeking the higher life he entered the Redemptorists, and was associated with Fathers Hecker, Walworth, Baker and Deshon in the band who inaugurated the giving of missions to the faithful in America. When the above named Fathers separated from the Redemptorists, Father Hewit cast his lot with them and became one of the foundation stones of the Congregation of St. Paul. For many years he labored as a missionary; later on took charge of the education of the Paulists students and on the death of Father Hecker was elected to succeed him as the Superior General of the Congregation. Father Hewit was a zealous supporter of the higher clerical education; associated himself with the foundation of the Catholic University at Washington, was an honorary member of its Senate, and was honored

Hierarchy of the Catholic Church.

The Catholic Hierarchy, or the governing body of the Catholic Church, consists of His Holiness the Supreme Pontiff, assisted by the Sacred College of Cardinals, and by several Sacred Congregations, or permanent ecclesiastical committees, of which the Cardinals are the chief members; by the Patriarchs, Archbishops and Bishops; by the Apostolic Delegates, Vicars and Prefects, and by certain Abbots and other Prelates.

HIS HOLINESS THE POPE,

BISHOP OF ROME, AND VICAR OF JESUS CHRIST,
SUCCESSOR OF ST. PETER, PRINCE OF THE APOSTLES,
SUPREME PONTIFF OF THE UNIVERSAL CHURCH,
PATRIARCH OF THE WEST, PRIMATE OF ITALY,
ARCHBISHOP AND METROPOLITAN OF THE ROMAN PROVINCE, SOVEREIGN OF THE TEMPORAL DOMINIONS OF THE HOLY ROMAN CHURCH.

Pope Leo XIII.,

JOACHIM PECCI,

SUPREME PONTIFF NOW GLORIOUSLY REIGNING,

The two hundred and sixty-third successor of St. Peter, was born at Carpineto, in the diocese of Anagni, March 2, 1810; ordained priest December 31, 1837; consecrated Titular Archbishop of Damietta February 17, 1843; transferred to the See of Perugia January 19, 1846; proclaimed Cardinal December 19, 1853; elected Pope February 20, crowned March 3, 1878.

His Holiness retains the Prefectship of the Congregation of the Holy Roman and Universal Inquisition or Holy Office, of the Consistorial Congregation, of the Apostolic Visitation, of the Pontifical Commission "ad reconciliationem dissidentium cum ecclesia"; the Protectorship of the Church and Chapter of SS. Celsus and Julianus, of the whole Order of St. Benedict, of the Order of Friars Minor, of the Archconfraternities of the Via Crucis, of the Lovers of Christ and Mary, of the Sacred Stigmata of St. Francis, of the Order of Preachers.

THE SACRED COLLEGE OF CARDINALS.

The Cardinals, when duly constituted and proclaimed, form the Supreme Council or Senate of the Church. They are advisers of the Supreme Pontiff, and at the death of the Pontiff they elect his successor.

There are three orders of Cardinals, Cardinal-Bishops, Cardinal-Priests, and Cardinal-Deacons; but these orders are distinct from those of the Hierarchy; with very few exceptions the Cardinal Priests are archbishops or bishops, and the Cardinal Deacons are generally priests. The Sacred College of Cardinals, when complete, consists of 70 members—6 Cardinal Bishops, 50 Cardinal Priests and 14 Cardinal Deacons.

The Cardinal Bishops occupy the Suburban Sees of Rome, which are Ostia and Velletri, Porto and Santa Rufina, Albano, Frascati, Palestrina, Sabina. The Cardinal Priests take their title from the "Titular Churches" to which they are appointed; the Cardinal Deacons are appointed to other Churches called "Deaconries." The first Cardinal Bishop is Dean; the first Cardinal Priest is First Priest; and the first Cardinal Deacon is First Deacon of the Sacred College. The Dean has the right of consecrating, and the First Deacon the right of proclaiming and crowning a new Pope. On the death of the Pontiff, the Cardinal Camerlengo has the Administration of the affairs of the Holy See.

(The 'creation' of a Cardinal sometimes precedes, even by several years the 'publication and proclamation.' The Cardinal is then said to be 'reserved in petto,' and when proclaimed, he takes the precedence according to date of creation.)

THE SACRED CONGREGATIONS.

CONGREGATION OF THE HOLY OFFICE (Congregatio Sacri Officii or Romanæ et Universalis Inquisitionis).

This Congregation, erected and constituted by Pope Paul III. in 1542, was approved and enriched with many privileges by his successors Pius IV., Pius V., and Sixtus V. Its object was to combat heresy and false doctrines, and to restrain heretics from injuring religion and the Church. Prefect: His Holiness the Pope. Secretary: His Eminence Lucidus Mary Cardinal Parocchi. Office: Palazzo del S. Uffizio.

CONSISTORIAL CONGREGATION (Congregatio Consistorialis).

This Congregation was founded by Sixtus V. in 1588. The office of it is to examine and discuss the questions which call for a formal pronouncement of the Pope at a private or public Consistory. It inquires particularly into the applications for the erection of new churches, patriarchal, metropolitan, and cathedral; regulates all about chapters, the number of canons, etc., and decides controversies arising therefrom. Prefect: His Holiness, the Pope. Secretary: Mgr. Charles Nocella. Office: Palazzo della Cancelleria Apostolica.

COMMISSION FOR THE REUNION OF DISSENTING CHURCHES (Commissio ad reconciliationem dissidentium cum ecclesia).

By a motuproprio act Pope Leo XIII. created in 1896 a stable commission for the reconciliation of the dissidents with the Roman Catholic Church. This commission is known under the title "Commissio pontificia ad reconciliationem dissidentium cum ecclesia favendam". It is composed of seven Cardinals with a special Secretary and Consultors. His Holiness the Pope himself presides; Mgr. A. Vecchio, secretary; Mgr. Merry del Val.

CONGREGATION OF THE APOSTOLIC VISITATION (Congregatio Visitationis Apostolicæ).

This Congregation was established to regulate the visits to the Churches and Holy Places in the City of Rome, and the privileges attached thereto. Prefect: His Holiness the Pope. President: His Eminence Lucidus Mary Cardinal Parocchi. Secretary: Most Rev. A. M. Grasselli, Titular Archbishop of Colossi. Office: Palazzo della Cancelleria Apostolica.

CONGREGATION OF BISHOPS AND REGULARS (Congregatio super negotiis Episcoporum et Regularium).

This Congregation was founded by Gregory XIII. and Sixtus V., for the arrangement of the rights and privileges of Bishops and of the Regular Orders established in the Church. Hence all classes of appeal against the Bishop's decisions, whether by seculars or regulars, are referred to it. It is also entrusted with the revision and approbation of the rules of religious bodies. Prefect: His Eminence Serafino Cardinal Vannutelli. Secretary: Mgr. Louis Trombetta. Office: Palazzo della Cancelleria Apostolica.

CONGREGATION OF THE COUNCIL (Congregatio Cardinalium Concilii Tridentini Interpretum).

This Congregation was founded by Pius IV., for the purpose of promoting the observance of the decrees of the Council of Trent. To this Pius V. added the interpretation of these decrees and the decision of all controversies arising from them. In 1587, this Congregation was also commissioned by Pope Sixtus V. to revise the decrees of all provincial Councils, and to see that all Bishops paid, at the time required by the Canons, their visits "ad limina apostolorum", and submitted to the Holy See a report of their dioceses.

Benedict XIV., however, appointed a special congregation in connection with the Council, for the purpose of examining the decrees of National and Provincial Synods, and a similar one was constituted by Pius IX., for the special purpose of attending to the visits and reports of Patriarchs, Archbishops, and Bishops. Prefect: His Eminence Angelo Cardinal Di Pietro. Pro-Secretary: Mgr. Benjamin Cavicchioni, Titular Archbishop of Nazianz. Office: Palazzo della Cancelleria Apostolica.

CONGREGATION FOR RESIDENCE OF BISHOPS (Congregatio Residentiæ Episcoporum).

Many laws exist, differing according to circumstances, obliging bishops to reside in their diocese. Urban VIII. established this Congregation for the purpose of seeing that these laws were observed. The Rules to be followed by the Congregation were laid down by Benedict XIV., and are now part of the Canon Law. Prefect: His Eminence Lucidus Mary Cardinal Parocchi. Secretary: Mgr. Benjamin Cavicchioni, Titular Archbishop of Nazianz. Office: Palazzo della Cancelleria Apostolica.

Louis Trombetta. Office: Palazzo della Cancelleria Apostolica.

CONGREGATION FOR ECCLESIASTICAL IMMUNITY (Congregatio Jurisdictionis et Immunitatis).

Instituted by Urban VIII. to protect and defend lawful ecclesiastical immunities against the encroachment and attacks of civil magistrates and secular communities. Most of the cases submitted to this Congregation for examination and judgement arose in the Papal States. Conflicts and controversies regarding concordats with other countries are now generally decided by the Cardinal Secretary of State, assisted by the members of the Congregation of extraordinary ecclesiastical affairs.

This Congregation is, by special disposition of His Holiness the Pope, temporary connected with the Congregation of the Council. Prefect: His Eminence Angelo Cardinal Di Pietro. Secretary: Mgr. B. Cavicchioni, Titular Archbishop of Nazianz. Office: Palazzo della Cancelleria Apostolica.

CONGREGATION FOR THE PROPAGATION OF FAITH (Congregatio de Propaganda Fide).

This Congregation was founded by Pope Gregory XV., in 1622. The Pope in his Constitution Inscrutabili conferred upon it the most ample powers for the Propagation of the Faith, and especially for the superintendence of missions in countries where heretics or infidels had to be evangelized. For this purpose it could not only appoint and change the necessary ministers in the countries specially submitted to its care, but also perform everything else it considered either necessary or opportune for the advancement of religion in such districts and provinces. The jurisdiction proper of the Congregation extends to all territories which are governed "more missionum", or as missionary countries, i. e., not by bishops constituted in the regular hierarchy, but by Prefects and Vicars Apostolic. Certain countries, even where the regular hierarchy is established, such as Ireland, England, and Scotland, and the United States, are likewise subject to the Congregation, and transact almost all their business with the Roman Curia through it. Hence, applications for dispensations, etc., are addressed to this Congregation through its Secretary. The Congregation has, moreover, a legislative and judicial power; and by authority conferred upon it by Gregory XV., and confirmed by Urban VIII. and Innocent X., its decrees, signed by the Secretary, and confirmed by the Prefect, have the force and authority of an Apostolic Constitution.

Prefect: His Eminence Mieczislas Cardinal Ledochowski. Secretary: Mgr. Augustin Ciasca, Titular Archbishop of Larissa. Office: Palazzo della S. Congr. di Propaganda.

Attached to this, there is a special Congregation for the Oriental Rites.

CONGREGATION OF THE INDEX (Congregatio Indicis librorum prohibitorum).

This Congregation was founded by Pius V., and confirmed by Gregory XIII., Sixtus V. and Clement VIII. Its office is to examine books submitted to its judgment by Bishops, or others, and to proscribe those it finds opposed to faith and morals. An Index or catalogue of wicked and dangerous books had already been drawn up at the Council of Trent, and approved by Pope Pius IV. Hence the name. Prefect: His Eminence Andreas Cardinal Steinhuber. Secretary: Mgr. Marcellin Cicognani, O.P. Office: Palazzo della Cancelleria Apostolica.

CONGREGATION OF RITES (Congregatio Rituum).

This Congregation was instituted by Sixtus V., for the purpose of promoting the observance of the Sacred Rites and Ceremonies of the Church, and of restoring and reforming them when necessary. It was also charged with the process of the Canonization of Saints, and with the regulation of the days to be observed as feasts in the Church, and was bound besides to see that all Kings, Princes, Ambassadors, and other exalted personages, whether lay or clerical, were received with becoming dignity and honor at the Papal Court. These are the duties which it still performs. Prefect: His Eminence Camillo Mazzella. Secretary: Mgr. D. Panici. Office: Palazzodella Cancelleria Apostolica.

CONGREGATION ON CEREMONIES (Congregatio Ceremonialis).

This Congregation arranges all the Pontifical ceremonies and decides questions of participation and precedence in them. Prefect: Louis Cardinal Oreglia di Santo Stefano. Secretary: Mgr. Caesar Sambuchetti, Titular Archbishop of Corinth.

CONGREGATION ON REGULAR DISCIPLINE (Congregatio Disciplinae Regularium).

This Congregation was established by Innocent XII., to promote the observance of discipline in monasteries and convents; to regulate the time to be spent in novitiates, to grant licences for the reception of postulants, and for their training and profession, etc. Prefect: His Eminence Serafino Cardinal Vannutelli. Secretary: Mgr. Louis Trombetta. Office: Palazzo della Cancelleria Apostolica.

CONGREGATION FOR INDULGENCES AND SACRED RELICS (Congregatio Indulgentiarum et S. Reliquiarum).

Founded by Pope Clement IX. in 1669, for the purpose of solving all doubts and difficulties concerning indulgences and relics, correcting abuses relating thereto, forbidding apocryphal, false, or indiscreet indulgences, examining relics newly discovered, etc. etc. General indulgences obtained directly from the Supreme Pontiff are null and void, unless a copy of such concession be deposited with the Secretary of this Congregation. (Decretum Benedicti XIV., Jan. 28, 1756.) Prefect: His Eminence Jerome Mary Cardinal Gotti. Substitute: Jos. M. Corelli. Office: Palazzo della Cancelleria Apostolico.

Bishop of Wilmington, Del.

Right Rev. John J. Monaghan, D.D., was born in Sumter, S. C., May 23, 1856. He made his preparatory studies for the priesthood under the Rev. Father McNeal, still at Sumter, and at the age of sixteen years entered St. Charles College, Md., where he completed his classical course in 1876. His theological studies were continued at St. Mary's Seminary, Baltimore, from which institution he was ordained to the priesthood by the late Rt. Rev. N. P. Lynch, at the Cathedral in Charleston, December 18, 1880. His first appointment was as assistant to the Very Rev. F. J. Shadler of St. Joseph's Church, Charleston. Thence he was placed as assistant at St. Patrick's Church. In November, 1882, he was appointed by the Very Rev. D. J. Quigley, administrator of the diocese, to be rector of Greenville, S. C., with the missions attached, including nine counties in the northwestern part of the State. On this mission he succeeded in establishing and organizing churches and parishes. He erected St. Paul's Church at Spartansburg, completed and furnished St. Joseph's Church, Anderson, built the Church at Abbeville, removed St. Mary's, Greenville, to its present site and built a parochial residence. In the fall of 1887 Father Monaghan was recalled to Charleston and made pro-rector of the Cathedral and chancellor of the diocese. For the past nine years he has been assistant to the Rt. Rev. Mgr. D. J. Quigley, V.G., at St. Patrick's Church, Charleston, the largest and most laborious parish in the diocese.

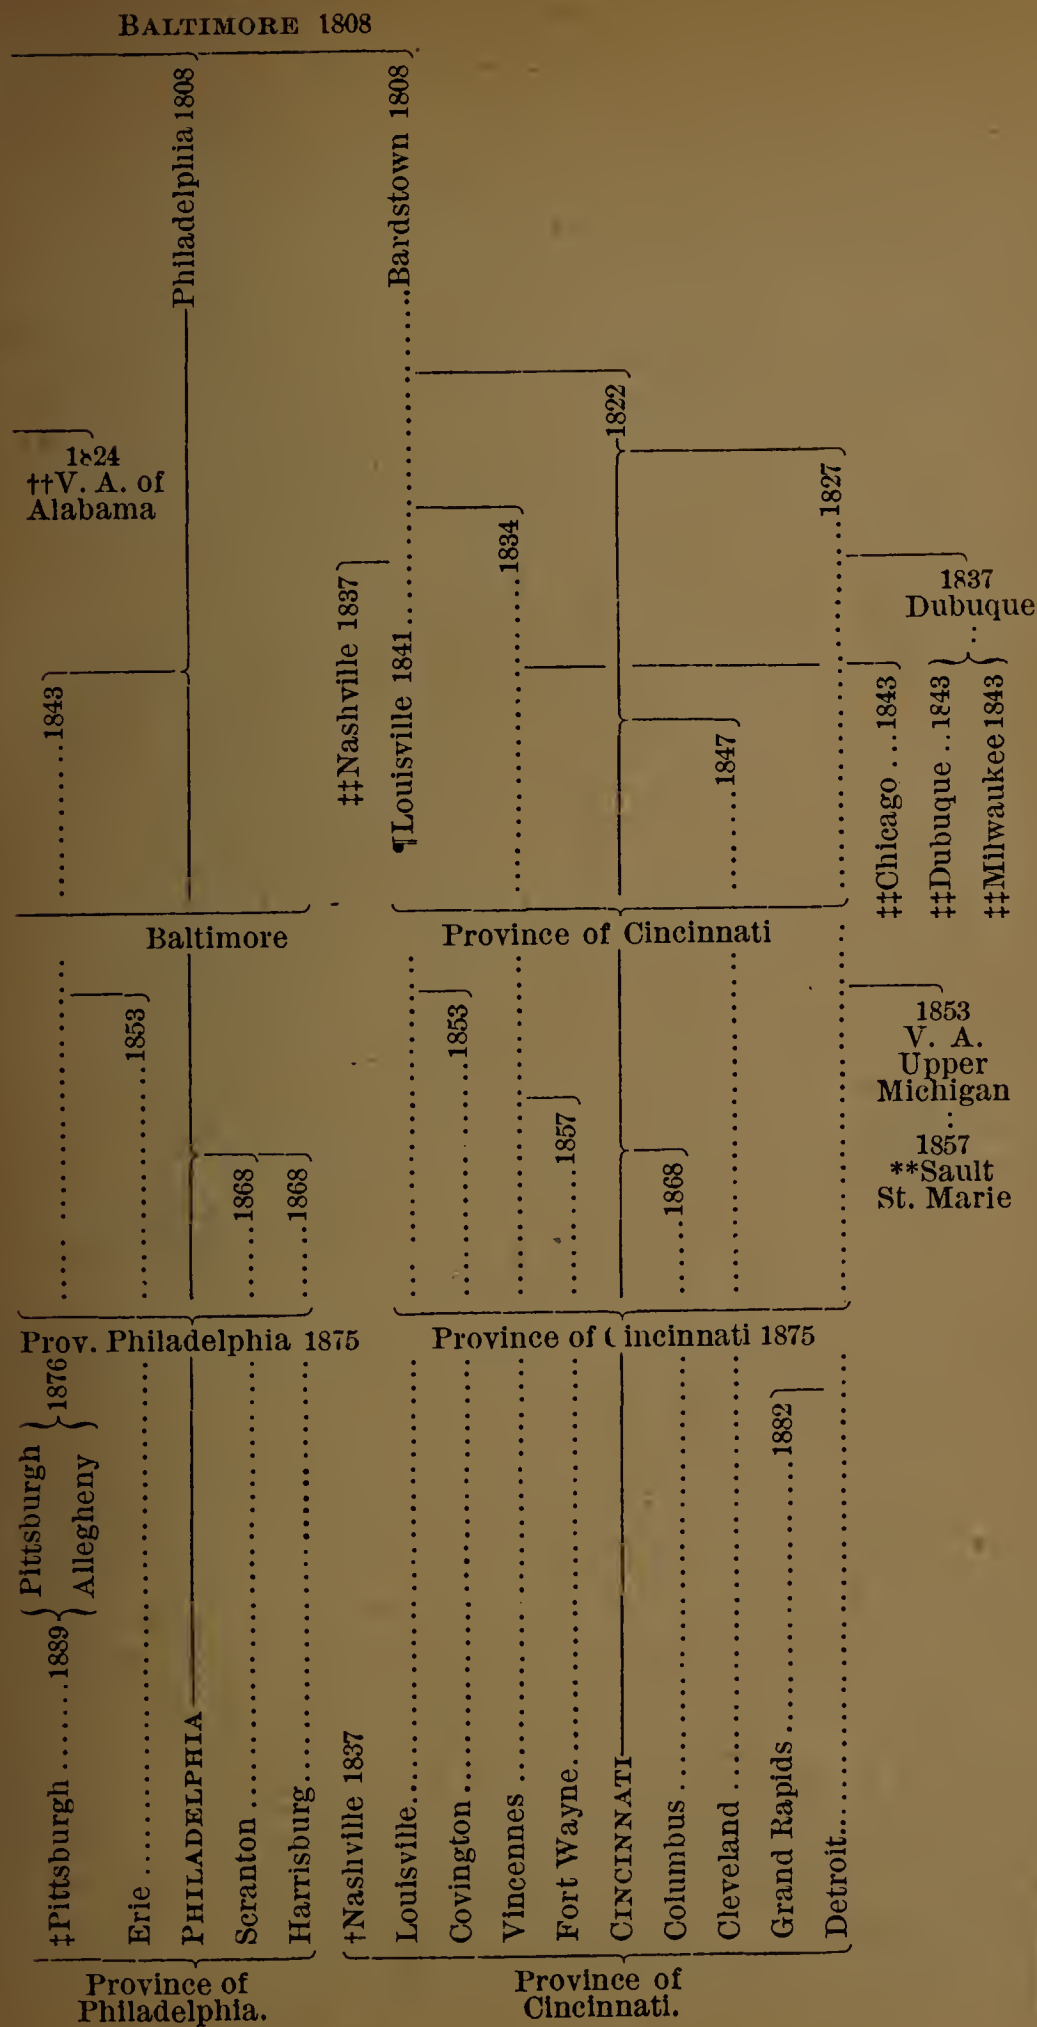

The consecration of Rt. Rev. Monaghan took place May 9, 1897, in St. Peter's Pro-Cathedral, Wilmington. His Eminence James Cardinal Gibbons was the consecrator, assisted by Bishop Northrop of Charleston, and Curtis, the retired Bishop of Wilmington.

RIGHT REV. EDMOND F. PRENDERGAST, V.G., D.D.,

Auxiliary Bishop of Philadelphia.

The Right Rev. Edmond F. Prendergast, D.D., was born at Clonmel, County Tipperary, Ireland, in 1843, and came to the United States when 16 years of age. He pursued his studies for the priesthood in the Seminary of St. Charles Borromeo, Philadelphia, and was ordained by the late Archbishop (at that time Bishop) Wood, in November 1865. He was first appointed assistant at St. Paul's Church, Philadelphia. Thence he was transferred to the Church at Susquehanna Depot, in Susquehanna County, as assistant to the Very Rev. John V. O'Reilly. His next charge was at St. Mark's, Bristol, where he was made rector and built the present church edifice, the previous building having been destroyed by fire. After remaining there for four years he was appointed in 1870 rector of the Church of Allentown, where he continued until February, 1874, when he became rector of St. Malachy's Church, Philadelphia, where he has since remained. When the last Council of Baltimore directed the appointment of a Board of Consultors to Bishops he was one of the first to be selected by Archbishop Ryan for that responsible office, and in February, 1895, he was made Vicar General.

The consecration of Bishop Prendergast took place in the Cathedral of SS. Peter and Paul, Philadelphia, February 24, 1897. Most Rev. Archbishop Ryan was the consecrator, assisted by Rt. Rev. Dr. Horstmann, Bishop of Cleveland, and Dr. Hoban, Coadjutor-Bishop of Scranton.

MOST REV. PLACIDE LOUIS CHAPELLE, D.D.,

Archbishop of Santa Fé, transferred to New Orleans.

Most Rev. Placide L. Chapelle, D.D., who has been appointed the successor of the late Abp. Janssens in the New Orleans See, is a native of the diocese of Mende in France, where he was born in August 1842. He came to this country at the age of seventeen, and soon after entered St. Mary's Seminary, Baltimore, as a theological student. At the completion of his studies, being too young to be ordained, he became a professor at St. Charles' College, Ellicott City, where he remained for two years. In 1865 he was ordained for the Baltimore diocese, and his first field of labor was in Montgomery county, where he had charge of several missions. While holding this post he prepared for and passed a brilliant examination for the doctor's degree, which was conferred upon him by his alma mater, St. Mary's Seminary, in 1868. Two years later he was appointed assistant to Mgr. B. J. McManus, pastor of St. John's church, Baltimore.

Next he became pastor of St. Joseph's, in the same city, and on the death, in 1882, of the well known Dr. Boyle, pastor of St. Matthew's church, Washington, he was made his successor.

In 1872 Dr. Chapelle was made president of the theological conferences of the Maryland priests, which post he held until after Bp. O'Sullivan was made the Mobile diocesan, Dr. Chapelle succeeded him in the presidency of the theological conferences held in the District of Columbia; and he acted as chaplain and spiritual director to the Visitandines at both Baltimore and Washington. He served several years on the Catholic Indian Bureau as vice-president while he was still a priest; he accompanied Archbishop Spalding to the Vatican Council as his secretary and has been intimately connected with the Catholic University since its inception. He is regarded as one of the best theologians in the country, and was one of the board that prepared the matters considered by the fathers of the last plenary council.

When Abp. Salpointe, six years ago, asked for a co-adjutor, who would have the right of succeeding him, Dr. Chapelle was nominated for the place, and he was consecrated on All Saints' day, 1891, at the Baltimore Cathedral by Cardinal Gibbons, with the title of Bishop of Arabissus. The following year he went to Rome, and while there the Pope made him an archbishop, assigning him the ancient See of Sebaste. On January 7, 1894, he became archbishop of Santa Fé, in consequence of the resignation of Mgr. Salpointe, and now he is transferred to New Orleans, and becomes the eleventh incumbent of our second oldest American See.

Bishop of Cheyenne.

Right Rev. Thomas Mathias Lenihan, D.D., was consecrated Bishop of Cheyenne, Wyoming, February 24, 1897, in St. Raphael's Cathedral at Dubuque, Iowa. When 12 years of age he was sent to St. Thomas' Seminary, Bardstown, Ky. His theological studies were made at Cape Girardeau, Mo., and Milwaukee, Wis. He was ordained November 19, 1862, and was the first priest ordained by Bishop Hennessy; he is also the first Bishop consecrated by the Metropolitan of Dubuque. His first mission was Decorah, where he remained three years. In 1870 Father Lenihan was assigned to the important mission of Fort Dodge, and ever since remained in charge of this portion of God's vineyard. This mission extended from Des Moines to the Minnesota line, and from Ackley to Sioux City, a distance of over 200 miles. Here he was kept busy forming new parishes and building new churches. To-day 26 priests are laboring in the same territory. Bishop Lenihan is a ripe scholar, a profound theologian and canonist, and masters the German and French languages equally as well as his mother tongue. The Catholics of Wyoming are to be congratulated in receiving such a distinguished churchman as their Ordinary.

REMARKS.

The resources of the State of Wyoming are boundless.

The agricultural lands when irrigated are as rich as the Delta of the Nile. They produce wheat, corn, all kinds of grain and vegetables, and nearly all kinds of fruit and flowers. There are now sixty thousand acres under irrigation surrounding the enterprising town of Wheatland, Laramie Co. This land is offered at $20.00 an acre with perpetual water right. The water is from the Laramie river, and the supply is inexhaustible. Reservoirs are being built to irrigate the immense "Laramie Plains" in Albany Co., of which the city of Laramie stands in its center. A syndicate is being formed to irrigate and reclaim two hundred thousand acres of land along the Platte River, known as the "Goshen Hole" Country. The supply of water in Wyoming is greater than in either Colorado or Nebraska. All the streams in the state carry large volumes of water, and are never dry.

At least one million head of sheep and one hundred thousand head of cattle have been fed on the open range this year and prepared for the eastern market.

Now is the time for Catholics who are industrious to locate in the State of Wyoming and form catholic settlements on the irrigated lands of Wheatland, Lander, Buffalo, Sundance, Sheridan, Hot Springs, Fort Bridger, Evanston and other enterprising towns of the state.

The coalfields of Rock Springs, Cambria, Glen Rock, Diamondville and Kennerly have veins from 10 to 30 ft. thick and the quality of the output cannot be excelled.

The oil wells of Casper, Douglas, New Castle and Lander are the richest on the Continent.

The iron mountains of Hartville, Laramie Co., are capable of supplying the world with the purest iron ore that has ever been discovered.

The paint quarries and rich mines of gold, silver, copper and lead at Rawlins and other localities are being rapidly developed and promise great things.

Wyoming with such limitless resources must naturally become one of the most prosperous of our Western States, and the city of Cheyenne, its beautiful Capitol, with its fine public buildings and large railway shops, its charming homes, handsome churches and admirable schools, surrounded with artificial lakes of pure mountain water and beautified with artistic parks and everflowing fountains—a city so attractively situated in this inter-mountain region, and favored with the most delightful climate in America must necessarily become the great metropolis midway between the Oceans,

The Clergy of Nebraska knowing the great fertility of the soil of Nebraska, the cheapness of land in this Garden of America and the easy methods of transit through the South Platte country—the most fertile portion of exceptionally fertile Nebraska—feel that they can with confidence invite all intending immigrants to open immediate correspondence with any of the priests above mentioned. For delicate persons the pure clear air of Nebraska cannot be excelled, for all persons Nebraska has a very healthy climate.

Bishop of Mobile, Ala. .

Right Rev. Edward Patrick Allen, D.D., the successor of the late Bishop O'Sullivan of Mobile, and fifth Bishop of this diocese, was born in Lowell, Mass., March 17, 1853. After attending the local schools and the Lowell Commercial College, he was sent to Mt. St. Mary's College, Emmittsburgh, Md., where he graduated in 1878. He then entered the Seminary, passed the theological course successfully and was ordained priest December 17, 1881, by Bishop Becker of Savannah, at that time of Wilmington. After his ordination he remained as professor at the College until he was called by his Ordinary, Archbishop Williams, to Boston, where he began his ministry at the Cathedral, becoming assistant afterwards at Framingham. In 1884 Father Allen, then only three years ordained, was called to Mt. St. Mary's and became its president. The Institution at the time being heavily involved, it became a serious undertaking on his part. The results since then manifest that he is deserving of the highest credit for the courage and good business tact displayed. Now that the debts are paid, buildings improved and extended, the chapel enlarged and the faculty increased, it is plainly shown, that the undertaking was crowned with success.

The consecration of Bishop Allen took place May 16, 1897, at the Cathedral, Baltimore, Md., Cardinal Gibbons officiating.

DIOCESE OF ST. AUGUSTINE.

(Diocesis Sancti Augustini.)

Florida, east of the Appalachian River, was erected by Pope Pius IX. into a Vicariate-Apostolic in the year 1857, and in 1870 into the Diocese of St. Augustine.

Comprises the Eastern, Middle, and Southern portions of the State of Florida.

Square Miles = 46,959.

RIGHT REVEREND

John Moore, D.D.,

Bishop of St. Augustine, cons. May 13, 1877. —Res., Cathedral, St. Augustine, Fla

Late Bishop—Right Rev. AUGUSTIN VEROT, D.D.. cons. April 25, 1858, Vicar-Apostolic of Florida; translated to the See of Savannah in July, 1861; appointed Bishop of St. Augustine March, 1870; died June, 10 1876.

Vicar-General—Very Rev. WM. J. KENNY.—Res., Jacksonville, Fla.

CLERGY, CHURCHES MISSIONS AND SCHOOLS.

CITY OF ST. AUGUSTINE.

Cathedral of St. Augustine, Right Rev. John Moore, D.D., Rev. Michael Maher, assistant. The Parish of St. Augustine, by far the oldest in the land, has had many vicissitudes in consequence of frequent changes of flag. The first colonists came from Spain in 1565, more than half a century before the Pilgrims landed at Plymouth. The Church of St. Augustine was fully organized at that early period, and it is its unique privilege to have a full set of records of baptisms, marriages, etc., from the year 1594, in a perfect state of preservation. These records are now in the city of Havana, where they were carried in 1763, at the first change of flag which made Florida pass under English rule. The population was originally altogether Catholic, and continued to have a large preponderance of Catholics until quite recently.

School—Connected with St. Joseph's Academy.

Chapel of Our Lady of Milk, formerly Nuestra Sra. de la Leche, half a mile north of St. Augustine. The site of this chapel was discovered about 1870 and a new building erected on the old foundations. The spot is hallowed from the fact that a missionary priest, the Franciscan Friar Father Blas Rodriguez de Montes, was put to death there in 1597 by the Indians, from whom he asked and obtained permission to say Mass, which they attended in silence, and at the end of which they massacred him. An oratory erected on that spot, in the time of the old Spaniards, and dedicated to Our Blessed Lady, perished during the political struggles of Florida; it was restored by Bishop Verot, but was since blown down in a gale of wind.

OUTSIDE OF THE CITY OF ST. AUGUSTINE.

Fernandina, Amelia Island, Nassau Co., Rev. Maurice P. Foley, D.D., rector. The church of Fernandina is dedicated to God, under the patronage of St. Michael, in remembrance of Father Michael de Auñon, who suffered martyrdom in this place at the time of the Indian rebellion against the Catholic clergy in 1597.

Catholic Population, about7 000

The apparent decrease of Catholic Population is explained by the following remarks of Rt. Rev. John Moore, D.D., Bishop of St. Augustine:

"In estimating the Catholic Population of the diocese I have heretofore counted the Cubans, because they call themselves Catholics in their own country, but as very few of them go near the church and many of them even allow their children to die without baptism, I now leave them out of the count."

COMMISSION FOR THE CATHOLIC MISSIONS AMONG THE COLORED PEOPLE AND THE INDIANS.

This Commission for distributing the funds collected annually by order of the Third Plenary Council of Baltimore, in behalf of our missions among the colored people and the Indians, consists of His Eminence James Cardinal Gibbons, chairman, Most Rev. Dr. Ryan, Archbishop of Philadelphia, and Most Rev. Dr. Kain, Archbishop of St. Louis, Mo.

All remittances and all communications concerning the business of the Commission, should be addressed to the secretary, Rev. E. R. Dyer, S.S., D.D., St. Joseph's Seminary, Yonkers, N. Y.

The Commission has made it a rule to consider only such applications as are received through the Most Rev. and Rt. Rev. Ordinaries and to put at their disposal whatever allocations may be made for the works under their charge.

It will always, be taken as a matter of course, that a mission which does not apply for assistance does not expect a share of the funds. Application must be made every time an appropriation is desired.

THE BUREAU OF CATHOLIC INDIAN MISSIONS.

(Office: 739 13th Street, Washington, D.C.).

The Bureau of Catholic Indian Missions was established in 1874 by the Most Rev. Archbishop of Baltimore, upon the recommendation, and for and in behalf, of the Catholic Prelates having Indian Missions within the limits of their Dioceses, for the purpose of representing before the Government the interests and wants of the said Prelates in all matters pertaining to Indian affairs. It was, by Decree of the Third Plenary Council of Baltimore, which was approved by Rome, recognized as an Institution of the Church, and was by that Council placed under the charge of a Committee of seven Prelates, consisting of His Eminence James Cardinal Gibbons; Most Rev. P. J. Ryan, Archbishop of Philadelphia; Most Rev. P. J. Riordan, Archbishop of San Francisco; Most Rev. P. L. Chappelle, Archbishop of Santa Fe; Rt. Rev. James A. Healy, Bishop of Portland; Rt. Rev. John B. Brondel, Bishop of Helena, and Rt. Rev. M. Marty, Bishop of St. Cloud. In 1894 this Committee was dissolved, and the Bureau as then constituted was superseded by a new corporation chartered by an Act of the Assembly of the State of Maryland—the incorporators being His Eminence James Cardinal Gibbons, Archbishop of Baltimore; Most Rev. P. J. Ryan, Archbishop of Philadelphia, and Most Rev. M. A. Corrigan, Archbishop of New York, and its corporate name being “THE BUREAU OF CATHOLIC INDIAN MISSIONS”. The new organization succeeded to all the rights and powers of, and all the property held by, the old incorporation; has adopted laws for the government and guidance of the Bureau, and has selected as its officers the following:

HIS EMINENCE JAMES CARDINAL GIBBONS, President.

RT. REV. MONSIGNOR J. A. STEPHAN, Director.

REV. E. R. DYER, SS., D.D., Treasurer.

CHARLES S. LUSK, Secretary.

The principal work of the Bureau is the establishment of Boarding and Day Schools among the Indian Tribes, and the procurement from the Government of funds for their support and maintenance.

The Schools receiving aid from the Government are distributed among the different Dioceses as follows:

AMERICAN COLLEGES IN EUROPE.

PONTIFICAL COLLEGE OF NORTH AMERICA. — THE NATIONAL COLLEGE OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AT ROME, ITALY. Founded by Pius IX. and formally opened by him Dec. 8, 1859; raised to the rank of Pontifical College by Leo XIII. by Apostolic Letters "Ubi primum" of Oct. 25, 1884, and destined for the education of students for the Church in the United States of America. Without dispensation from the Pope only students from America are admitted into the College.

Students enter for philosophy and theology, and sometimes also for humanities, and follow the course of the Urban College of the Propaganda for all branches.

A supplementary apartment has been opened lately where a few students are accommodated, that with proper permissions, desire to remain in Rome sometime after their ordination, in order to pursue special studies, or to become acquainted with the practice of the Roman Congregations. Very Rev. Wm. H. O'Connell, rector; Rev. John P. Farrelly, D.D., Magister pietatis. Number of students, 65.

AMERICAN COLLEGE OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY AT LOUVAIN, BELGIUM. This College has been established by several of the American Bishops with the consent and approbation of His Eminence the Cardinal Archbishop of Malines, under the patronage of the Bishops of Belgium, and under the auspices of charitable persons both in Europe and America, who take a lively interest in the missions of the vast American continent.

The object of the institution is to procure for young men who desire to consecrate themselves to the missions of North America, a sure and easy means of pursuing their vocation.

The students are taught the English and German languages, and after having gone through a course of theology and having received the instructions necessary for their holy mission and the requirements of the country in which they are to preach the Gospel may be allowed to follow the more profound branches of the celebrated Catholic University of Louvain.

The missionaries educated in the American College are destined to remain secular priests, and, as such, will labor in the places assigned them by their respective Ordinaries.

Applicants for admission must have received the permission of their Ordinary, and must furnish the certificates of good conduct and have aptitude for the study of theology or philosophy. Those who enter after having been ordained priests will be sent to America and become affiliated to a diocese as soon as they are judged sufficiently qualified for the work of the missions. Students who pay their own pensions will have the right of choosing any diocese they please amongst those whose Bishops are patrons of the institution. Those who do not pay for themselves will be at the disposition of the Right Rev. Patrons who secure payment of their expenses. Students whose expenses are paid by burses founded by charitable persons will be placed according to the intention of the founder. Charitable persons in Europe are contributing to the foundation of burses in the College for the purpose of educating young men for the American missions. It is earnestly hoped that the Right Rev. Prelates of America will employ their influence to secure similar foundations for the institution by zealous and charitable persons in the New World.

The Rector would respectfully request the Patrons of the Institution, as well as other American Prelates who desire to place students in the College, to inform him of their intention at least two months before the opening of the scholastic year which begins on the first of October.

In case the number of applicants should be greater than can be received, the preferences will be given to the students of those Prelates who have contributed towards the foundations. Students who wish to enter, should be at least sufficiently advanced in their studies to begin philosophy. The annual pension for board including bedding is $140 in advance.

Faculty: Right Rev. Mgr. J. Willemssen, rector and professor of dogmatic theology; Very Rev. W. Stang, D.D., vice-rector and prof. of church history and pastoral theology; Very Rev. J. Canon De Becker, J.U.D., professor of canon law and liturgy; Rev. E. Génicot, S.J., professor of moral theology; Rev. Jos. Huygen, S.J., professor of sacred scripture; Rev. P. De Lattre, S.J., prof. of Hebrew; Rev. L. Delplace, S.J., and Rev. J. P. Boller, S.J., spiritual directors. Number of Students, 91; Priests on the American Mission, 553.

SISTERS OF CHARITY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL.

MOTHERHOUSE at St. Joseph's Academy, Emmittsburg, Md. Mother Mariana, supr.

The Sisters of Charity (Filles de la Charité, Daughters of Charity) were founded in Paris in 1633, by St. Vincent de Paul, aided by Mademoiselle Louise le Gras. As their name As their name indicates, the Sisters take charge of works of charity in general. The members are not bound by perpetual vows, but on March 25. of each year take the simple vows of religion. They are governed by a Mother General, who resides in Paris, and is subject to the Superior-General of the Priests of the Congregation of the Mission.

The Sisters of Charity of the United States were founded by the saintly Mother Eliza A. Seton. This devoted lady was the daughter of Protestant parents in whose faith she was educated. She received the gift of faith in 1805 at Rome, Italy, and on June 2, 1809 she established at Emmittsburg, Md., a community which she called "St. Joseph's Sisterhood". Her first companions were Misses Cecilia O'Conway and Mary Murphy, both of Philadelphia. Mother Seton and her ecclesiastical superiors having determined to found the community on the plan of the Daughters of St. Vincent de Paul, she applied to France for Sisters to aid the undertaking. The Mother General consented and four sisters were deputed to come to America and take charge of the work; but their journey was prevented by the government of Bonaparte, which refused to permit the Sisters to leave France. A copy of the French rule was however, obtained, and the sisters began to observe it with certain modifications suited to the circumstances of the country. The saintly Mother Seton passed to her reward January 4, 1821. In 1850 a union was effected between St. Joseph's Sisterhood at Emmittsburg, and the Daughters of Charity in Paris, and on December 3, 1850 the Community of Emmittsburg assumed the habit worn by the Sisters in France.

As early as 1817 the Sisters of Charity of Emmittsburg, Md., were called to New York, where their first duty was the care of the orphans. But three Sisters came to form the New York branch, Sister Rose White and 2 others. When this branch numbered 33 Sisters it seemed desirable to form an independent and separate Community of which Sister Elisabeth Boyle, who succeeded Sister Rose was chosen first Mother superior in 1846. (The Academy of Mt. St. Vincent dates its origin from Sept. 13, 1847.) Mother M. Rose, the present Mother superior is the fifth Mother.

Xavier, the present superioress, and Sister M. Catherine, the Mother assistant. The Sisters occupied first the Ward Mansion, Newark, N. J., but finding it ill adapted for the purpose of a novitiate and boarding school purchased the Chegaray Mansion, Madison, N. J., of which they took possession in 1860. Finding the distance from the railroad station to be a disadvantage to the schools, the Sisters built a new Convent and Academy at Convent Station in 1878, where the Motherhouse is located. SISTERS OF OUR LADY OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD.

Mother Mary of St. Euphrasia Pelletier, the first Superior-General of this Congregation, entered the community of the Sisters of Our Lady of Charity of Refuge at Tours, France, in 1815. She was so well adapted for the work among the penitents, that before she had completed her twenty-first year, she was put in charge of them. A few years later she was elected prioress of the Monastery, the Pope granting the required dispensation, as she had not attained the canonical age. In 1827 she was invited by the Clergy of Angers to take charge of a Refuge, which they were founding on the bequest of a pious widow, and having obtained due authorization from the ecclesiastical authorities, she accepted the call. The House being successfully established, she undertook the reorganization of the Order to further its missionary development. Originally each house was an independent institution. There was no centre for consultation, no source whence weak and struggling foundations might claim aid and sympathy, no way of distributing and interchanging the religious so as to place each sister in the position where the Institute would obtain from her the best service. Mother Mary of St. Euphrasia's plan was the centralization of the Order, Angers should be made the Motherhouse, and the general government of all houses, which should be founded from Angers, should be entrusted to the Superior of said house. She won for her plan the approval and approbation of the Bishop of Angers and other churchmen, also the substantial aid of several wealthy noblemen, as the means which she proposed to realize her plan were eminently practical and her disinterestedness and rectitude of intention evident. In 1835 the Pope approved of the change in the government of the Order, and also the new title Our Lady of Charity of the Good Shepherd of Angers, and declared that under the Generotde the Religious were to continue to enjoy all the rights and privileges granted to the ancient Order of the Refuge. The growth of the Order of Our Lady of Charity of the Good Shepherd of Angers was so rapid and extensive, that in 1857 Pope Pius IX. issued a Decree dividing the Order into Provinces. SISTERS OF OUR LADY OF CHARITY OF REFUGE.

(Called Good Shepherd.)

The celebrated Rev. Père Eudes, founder of the Congregation which bears his name, had the happiness on his missions, given in the years 1635—1640, of converting several fallen women from a life of sin, who presented themselves, begging him to provide for them a place of refuge where they might do penance. Having assisted them by his alms, he turned them over to the care of some pious ladies, one of whom was Mademoiselle Madeleine l'Amy. He rented a house in Caen in 1641, with the assistance of charitable persons, and as the number of penitents rapidly increased, he introduced the enclosure into the community. The new order was at first directed by Sisters of the Visitation. Père Eudes, desirous of forming his institute according to the spirit of St. Francis de Sales, gave to it the constitutions of the Sisters of the Visitation, with the modifications required by its peculiar character. He decreed that the penitents should not be admitted into the order, but that they should be kept entirely separated from the religious. After the return of the Sisters of the Visitation to their monastery Mother Mary of the Assumption de Taillefer became superior of the community. The habit consists of a robe, scapula, and mantle, all of a white color, with a black veil and silver heart on the breast. Pope Alexander VII. erected the congregation as a religious order by a Bull of January 2, 1666.

CONVENT at 114—116 E. 86th st., New York City. Established May 1892.

The work of the Sisters is to visit and nurse the sick poor in their own houses, and to give religious instruction to children and adults. The Sisters have no schools, but receive children on their leaving the public schools in the afternoon for catechism classes, both for boys and girls: have Sunday and evening meetings for older girls engaged in business houses, also for mothers of families. On weekdays both girls and women do needlework at the meetings; materials are provided for them, and the clothing there made, is given to them. Many converts, or Catholics whose religious education is deficient, are instructed individually and prepared for the Sacraments. The same work is done for the colored people. All the works are undertaken with the view of helping the Souls in Purgatory, not only by prayers, but also by works of mercy spiritual and corporal; and they are entirely gratuitous, nothing being accepted either from the sick poor, the parents of children instructed, or their friends. The Sisters depend upon Divine Providence, and the free gifts of those whose devotion to the Holy Souls prompts them to aid a Society devoted to work for the living and the dead. Legal title: The Society of the Helpers of the Holy Souls of the City of New York.

SISTERS OF ST. JOSEPH (of Carondolet).

The Congregation of the Sisters of St. Joseph was founded in the city of Puy, France, in the year 1650, and rapidly developed itself in most of the chief cities of the land, when the French revolution of 1789 demolished all, or nearly all Convents. After the subsequent restoration of religious Orders in France, the Institute was reorganized in Lyons, which House became the General Motherhouse of the Congregation and the parent of all subsequent establishments. In 1836 six Sisters from the Motherhouse of Lyons, at the request of Bishop Rosati of St. Louis, came to found a House at Carondolet, near St. Louis, which then became the chief Motherhouse in this country, without however being dependent on Lyons. All the Houses of the Sisters of St. Joseph in the United States and Canada, except those of New Orleans, Cincinnati, St. Augustine, Fla., and Savannah, Ga., owe their origin either directly or indirectly to the Motherhouse of St. Louis. As however, in the early days the Institute was considered diocesan, it naturally followed that many Branch or Novitiate Houses should be established, until in 1861, by the authority of His Holiness, Pius IX., the Congregation was reorganized under approved Rules and Constitutions and subjected to the immediate government of a Superioress General who resides at the Motherhouse of St. Louis, and to whose jurisdiction all the Houses thereafter founded by this House, were to be subject.

VISITATION NUNS.

The Order of the Visitation was founded at Annecy (Savoy) in 1610 by St. Francis de Sales, Bishop and Prince of Geneva, and St. Jane Frances Fremiot de Chantal, for the purpose of opening a Retreat to persons desirous of the religious life, too infirm in body to enter an austere Order; there to sanctify themselves by prayer and good works, and to help the salvation of souls, using for that all the means in their power, as prayer, self-sacrifice, charity of any kind compatible with the Rule; retreats and spiritual exercises offered to souls desirous of greater perfection. The intention of the holy Bishop, was not, he says it expressly, to occupy his daughters with the education of young girls, nevertheless, he allowed some few in the monasteries, whose parents destined them to be formed more for solid piety than for the world; and this has been observed almost universally with the said conditions. The Monasteries of the Visitation although spread through all countries even during the life time of the Founder, have no Superior General, they are independent of each other, nevertheless the holy Bishop of Geneva gave them a bond of union, which he deemed stronger than human means. He wished all the Visitation Houses kept in an intimate union, by a mutual Charity, and child-like confidence towards the Motherhouse at Annecy, whose duty it is in return for this to watch with a motherly love over the spiritual and temporal necessities, as well as the keeping up of the letter and the spirit of the Rule. Therefore, any house has the right to refer to Annecy in its troubles or difficulties, and each house more-over owes its assistance to the houses founded from it. Three Centuries testify to the wisdom of the holy Founder, by the perfect union and preservation of the primitive spirit in the 170 Monasteries existing at present throughout the world. The Visitation was introduced in America in 1799 when the first Monastery was established at Georgetown, D. C. At that time the needs of the country requiring all good Catholics to unite their common strength in the work of Christian education, the Visitation in America had from its first beginning to extend the simple concession of the Founder, making education the principal object of its existence. This naturally made it deviate from the first idea of the Founder, and from the original aspect of the Visitation of 1610.

VISITATION CONVENT (Primitive Observance).

In 1892 Miss Mary L. Abell, daughter of A. S. Abell, Esq., of Baltimore, was inspired with the wish to establish the Visitation in its primitive spirit and rules. She made the proposition of this great undertaking to the Monastery of Wilmington, Del. (founded at Keokuk in 1853 by four Sisters from Montluel, France, and transferred to Wilmington, Delaware, in 1868). The proposition was accepted, and the plan laid out and executed under the guidance of the Right Rev. A. A. Curtis, D.D., Bishop of Wilmington. The Motherhouse of Annecy, sent at the request of the Community two Sisters to establish the Rule, one of whom, Mother Marie Alexandrine de Butler was elected Superior in June 1892. The new Monastery on Bayard ave. was completed in 1893 and on July 31, the transfer of the Community, 32 in number, was made from the Convent on Delaware ave. to its present location.
